ETHYLENE'S FAST MILE.

Although there was no stake up for decision at Worth yesterday the card was well balanced throughout and drew out the usual large crowd.

The most important race of the day was the fourth, a free handicap purse of $800, for all ages, at one mile. Of the ten scheduled to start three were absentees. Pink Coat was made the first choice, but ran a poor race, showing scant speed throughout. The winner turned up in Ethylene, heavily backed by E. J. Arnold who is said to have won close to $15,000 on the filly's victory. She led from start to finish, displayed much speed throughout and fairly spreadeagled the field, winning as her rider pleased by three and a half lengths from Sidney C. Love, which beat The Lady one length for second place. Sidney C. Love ran an excellent race and was much the best of the others at the weights. The Lady closed up ground fast in the last eighth and finished resolutely. Homestead gradually fell away beaten after the first half mile had been run. Neither Pink Coat nor Jiminez was ever a serious contender. They showed scant speed and appear to be of little present account. The mile was run in track record time.

Toah is undoubtedly the best sprinter in the west at present. He took the fifth race, a dash of six furlongs, in handy fashion, being held at 1 to 2 in the betting. Of the seven scheduled to start four dodged the issue. Toah led by a short margin for the first quarter, closely pressed by St. Cuthbert and Federal. The three ran in close order to the head of the stretch, where Toah opened a gap of one and one-half lengths, but in the last sixteenth Federal closed up fast, causing Winkfield to hustle Toah out at the end, although he held Federal safe in the closing strides. Toah won by a neck, while Federal beat St. Cuthbert four lengths for second place. The last named fell away beaten when turning into the last quarter.

The first race, a dash of one mile for maidens of all ages, brought an unwieldy field of fourteen to the post. Naulahka and Best Man were supposed to be the best, both being backed generously, but neither finished inside of the money, the winner turning up in Solon, well backed from 8 to 1 to 5 to 1. Naulahka led by a good margin up to the last quarter, where she fell away beaten, Solon assuming an easy command and holding it to the wire, winning by two and one-half lengths from Gilfain, which beat Gold Bride two lengths for second place. Gilfain ran a good race and finished strongly. Gold Bride tired slightly in the last sixteenth struggle. Best Man was badly pinched out of position at the start and had no chance thereafter.

The second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, was marred by a bad start. The Crisis was thought to be the best, but had little chance from where she got off. Angelo, off flying, led by a good margin up to the last quarter, where he had enough and fell away beaten. In the run down the stretch Gravina moved to the front and won in a spirited finish by a head from Mallory, which beat Musical Slipper three and a half lengths for second place. Mallory closed up ground fast in the last quarter and although he finished strongly could not quite reach. Musical Slipper saved ground by being taken next to the inside rail in the last quarter, but was tiring fast at the end and would have lost third place in another stride or two to Sarah Maxim. Lendin showed scant speed and appears to be of no present account.

Fake proved to be the best in the third race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Geyser and Siphon ran in close company to the head of the stretch, where the latter tired fast and fell away beaten. In the last quarter Fake, which had been running along in third position, moved up fast and easily passed into the lead, winning by one length from Silver Fizz, which beat Evelyn Byrd one length for second place. Silver Fizz ran an excellent race, coming from away back in the last half and finishing with a rush. Evelyn Byrd also finished fast. Geyser tired fast when the pinch came and appears to be nowhere near the good horse he once was. Montanic beat the barrier over two lengths, but it did him no good as he ran a dull race and was never prominent.

The last race of the day, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, was won by Bessie McCarthy, which beat Chickadee a nose on the post, with Connt 'Em Out third, a head back of Chickadee.

Betting was the heaviest of the week. The track was at its best and excellent time was made in the various races.

Many of the best horses now in training in the west are named to start in the Columbia Handicap this afternoon and a remarkably exciting race is in prospect that should suffice to attract a great crowd. If McChesney wins his performance will increase the confidence of those who think him the equal, if not the superior, of Hermis.

DRAKE AS A PLUNGER.

"J. A. Drake is the best advertised bettor in the country—the best advertised bettor since the days of Plunger Walton. The American turf of this generation has had such plungers as M. F. Dwyer, Riley Grannan and 'Pittsburg Phil.' In a racing way each of these men have speculated in a fashion that would give pause to this breezy bettor from the west, but none of them has been exploited as he has been exploited," says a New York newspaper of Wednesday. "If all the stories of Drake's winnings, from the day of his advent at the Saratoga meeting of this season down to the present time are true, then there no longer is any mystery about the scarcity of money. Instead of calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for relief the banks should have a session with Mr. Drake. He has the money. If any doubting Thomases there be let them consult the daily papers from August 3 to October 15, recon the amounts alleged to have been won by him, and be convinced. For if they be not convinced by the array of figures presented to them, then indeed are they without faith and without hope. Duck or drake, this man with the atmosphere of the west all over and about him must think he has fallen into a small puddle—else surely such a fuss never would have been made over his betting operations.

"Mr. Drake certainly bets and wins—also loses, just like ordinary mortals. He is not gifted with second sight. He is not the seventh son of a seventh son. He has no unusual or extraordinary means of gaining information about the condition of other men's horses. He bets and wins and loses. Despite the alleged magnitude of his operations it is not on record that he ever broke a book in the east. The layers always seem to be willing, if not eager, to accept his money. They do not fly to cover when his black betting commissioner approaches, nor do they seek to discourage him by cutting the price unduly. In fact, Mr. Drake's money carries little or no terror to the layers. They are on hand to do business. They have been doing business with him for some months now, and if any of them are the worst for their dealings with him they must be splendid dissemblers—merry men who laugh and grow fat while their hopes and their bank rolls vanish into thin air. The betting ring is a sensitive organization. Distress there becomes apparent quickly, and inasmuch as no symptoms of distress have been shown there it cannot be that Mr. Drake is working such sad havoc as the tales of the day would have horsemen believe.

"Go back ten years—back to the time when M. F. Dwyer was in his heyday as a bettor. Note the contrast between the temper of the ring of that time and the temper of the ring of today. The ring was as strong financially and otherwise then as it is now; but, with all its strength, Mr. Dwyer, single-handed, kept it at bay. He snapped his lash and the ring growled, and growling slunk away. It never had the courage to stand before his onslaught. It knew him to be a clear-headed, cool, daring bettor and it feared him. When his commissioners went the rounds the odds were cut hurriedly—sometimes wiped out completely. And with his commissioners it was not a case of, 'I will bet you $500,' or, 'I will bet you $1,000,' but, 'how much will you take?' Men who delight in such tales still love to tell of the day when Joe Cotton, with $80,000 of M. F. Dwyer's money at stake, got up in time to win by a nose, or, of that day at Jerome Park, a decade ago, when Kingston, carrying more than $35,000 of the Silent Plunger's money, was beaten on a fluke by Terrifier, and the Silent Man remained silent while all about him was a crowd hissing and jeering at the unfortunate jockey who made the mistake which resulted in defeat. All of which goes to show that, although we did not seem to be aware of the fact, we had plungers worthy of the name long before Mr. Drake camped on the trail of the betting ring.

"If Mr. Drake were the out and out plunger which his followers would have the racing public believe, there would not be a layer of odds in town this morning with money enough to buy a meal ticket in a Bowery restaurant. At Morris Park yesterday he cashed after each of the first four races, the first, third and fourth races being won by horses carrying his own colors, and two of them being at lucrative odds. Strange as it may seem to those who have not followed Mr. Drake's betting operations closely, the layers were in line and ready to do business on the fifth race, every man of them. Clearly Mr. Drake is no raging lion of a plunger, else with winning bets on Charlie Grainger at 7 to 1, Runnels at 3 to 5, Cinquevalli at 5 to 1, and South Trimble at 2 to 1 there would not be a layer left to tell the story. Clearly also Mr. Drake is willing to live and let live. It is his privilege to bet. An amount great to others might seem small indeed to him. The harm to the turf is not in the money he wins or loses—because, as already shown, the layers and the public proceed on the even tenor of their way—but rather in the tales told of these winnings and losses, and in the fact that in the telling of them the sport itself is made secondary to the betting feature of it. Heretofore the stewards have taken radical measures to suppress this evil tendency, and if the circumstances warrant it there can be no doubt that they again will resort to radical measures. In the meantime there should be no alarm over Mr. Drake's betting operations. There is no reason to label him dangerous."

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Ethylene, the winner of the fourth race, ran a sensational race from a time standpoint. She practically only cantered the last eighth after setting a fast steady pace in the early stages. Despite the fact that she was eased up in the last sixteenth, she tied the track record of 1:39½, held by Federal. Had Ethylene been forced out she could have easily set the mark at a much lower figure. E. J. Arnold & Co., her owners, are reported to have hit the books hard over the victory and the success of Bessie McCarthy, their other winner.

Mr. Dwyer announced yesterday that there was no truth in the rumors that he would do the starting at New Orleans this winter. He stated that at the conclusion of the local racing season he would go to Hot Springs for a rest of three weeks and then go on to California where he will alternate with Holtman as starter for the racing season. Mr. Holtman will do the starting the first thirty days and Mr. Dwyer will handle the flag the next thirty days, after that they will alternate every two weeks until the close of the racing season on the coast.

Gold Heels, which was recently purchased by E. J. Arnold & Co. and shipped en route to their breeding establishment at Greenville, Ill., arrived

MORRIS PARK RACING.

Concerning features incident to the racing at Morris Park Wednesday, the Sun of Thursday says:

"John A. Drake does not care for the notoriety he has been receiving of late because of the stories of his operations in the betting rings at local tracks. He said yesterday that he really won only about $18,000 on Tuesday, instead of $50,000, as report had it when the last race had been run. Mr. Drake further declared that unless the sensational stories of his betting ceased, he would be compelled to retire from the turf. He said he did not run his horses for gambling purposes exclusively, but for the love of the sport, betting on them because he could afford it. In recognition of his cleverness in turning out three winners on Tuesday, Trainer Enoch Wishard received an automobile from Mr. Drake as a gift yesterday.

"Two killings were framed up at Westchester yesterday by several western turfmen, headed by J. Robertson, the owner of Syrlin and McWilliams. They backed Syrlin down from five to 18 to 5 to win the second event, but the St. Saviour gelding was beaten a head by River Pirate. In the last race Robertson and his friends backed McWilliams down from 12 to 1 to sixes and took about $30,000 out of the ring on the victory of the Bolero gelding. Ben Howard, Queen Carnival, Prince Richard and Loone were all red-hot good things in this event.

"In the fifth race Albert Simons and others put heavy commissions on Par Excellence, the filly's price dropping from fifteen to eight, but the money burned up quickly. Ipse Dixit, Earl of Warwick and Harrison were the unsuccessful good things in the fourth race. The ring was hit hardest by the talent on Rossignol's victory in the McGrathiana Stakes. The filly was entered to be sold for $1,500 and 'Father Bill' Daly boosted the price to $2,000, whereupon the owner retained his property with an extra $5 bid.

"The McGrathiana Stakes was first run in 1898, when Bonadea was victorious in 1:27½, which is still a record for the event. Sidney Paget's Toluca won it in 1899, with Perry Belmont's Oread the winner in 1900. Last year Andrew Miller's Animosity was triumphant. The race yesterday was worth about $2,000 gross.

"Lucien O. Appleby has sold Attila and Twin Rose to A. C. McCafferty, who will race them at New Orleans this winter. The terms were private.

"Long Shot Boiesen had a narrow escape from serious injury in the last race yesterday. He had the mount on Ivernia, who was crowded to the rail in the stretch on the way home. Several men jumped over the fence and caught the filly, enabling Boiesen to dismount. The boy escaped with a severely wrenched leg.

Jockey Winnie O'Connor has received his release from A. Featherstone. The boy says he has received an offer to ride for Baron Rothschild in France next year, but will not accept it until he has had time to consider several propositions to ride in this country. Mr. Featherstone is on the lookout for another jockey. O'Connor wants a salary of $25,000 a year to ride abroad.

"Prince Poniatowski, who was the moving spirit in the Tanforan track before the California Jockey Club took hold of it, was a visitor at Morris Park yesterday. The Prince is not now actively engaged in racing, but he is still interested in the breeding industry and has a stock farm at Burlingame, not far from San Francisco. He is breeding his mares to sons of St. Simon and Ormonde.

"Grey Friar and Eugenia Burch both worked well yesterday for the Champagne Stakes, to be run at Morris Park on Saturday. Whether Whitney & Duryea will start Acefull or not will probably be decided today after Mr. Whitney has had a talk with J. E. Madden. Present indications point to a fine field in this race.

"The attendance at Morris Park is averaging between 10,000 and 15,000 daily, exclusive of Saturdays."

The Worth Jockey Club has arranged for a special Sunday train, to leave Dearborn station at 8:25 a.m., returning from Worth race track at 11:30 a.m.

Fake, the winner of the third race, was bid up $400 over his entered price of $100 and retained by his owner with an additional bid of $5.

C. E. Durnell, part owner of McChesney said yesterday that if the Westchester Racing Association would duplicate the offer of $5,000 for a race between McChesney and Hermis he would take his good colt east and race the eastern crack over the Morris Park track. Something may come of this.

Durnell & Herz have purchased the speedy horse Golden Rule from F. W. Doss.

SATURDAY AT WORTH 20-1 GOOD THING

Today at Worth our advertised good thing starts, will have a good rider up and in the opinion of our experts should win in a common canter. We consider this long shot one of the best that we have had this year.

Our three horse wire will name two others at odds from 3 to 10 to 1 that should win sure.

Our three-horse wire has proven an enormous success. It has made a great hit, because—
1st. It gives only three good things daily.
2nd. You are not trying to beat the card—you play your horses, pocket your winnings and quit for the day.
3rd. It requires less capital and there is no chance of getting a string of losers.
4th. Cashing on two and sometimes three races a day is an easy matter on this plan. Think this over. It will appeal to your good judgment.

Friday's Winners: Toah, Bessie McCarthy.

Gold Bride tired slightly when the pinch came. Naulahka showed much speed, but was well beaten when a furlong from home. North Pole ran well for six furlongs. Best Man, pinched out of position at the start, had no chance thereafter.

Winner—B. f. by Golden Garter—Pink Cottage (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 2:35. Off at once to a straggling start. Won driving; second easily. Gravina easily wore Angelo down in the last eighth, but had to be driven out to stall off Mallory's determined bid in the last thirty yards. The latter closed up ground fast in the last quarter, but could not quite reach. Musical Slipper saved ground by being taken next to the inside rail when entering the last quarter. She tired fast at the end and would have lost third place to Sarah Maxim in another stride or two. Angelo tired fast in the last eighth. The Crisis had no chance from where she got off. My Surprise ran out to the outside rail just before reaching the turn for home.
Gravina, show, evens. Mallory, show, evens. Musical Slipper, show, 5 to 1. The Crisis, show, 2 to 5.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Fake easily wore down Geyser in the final eighth and was going away at the end. Silver Fizz came with a rush at the end after making up much ground throughout. Evelyn Byrd ran a good race, responding gamely under punishment in the last eighth. Geyser was well beaten just after turning for home. Siphon showed some early speed. Montanic beat the barrier two lengths, but it availed him nothing as he showed scant speed throughout. The winner, entered for $100, was run up to $805 and bought in.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second handily. Ethylene showed the most speed and simply spreadeagled the field, winning as her rider pleased. Sidney C. Love ran a good race and was the best of the others at the weights. The Lady moved up fast when turning for home and finished resolutely. Homestead tired fast after six furlongs had been run. Neither Jiminez nor Pink Coat were ever serious contenders. Both appear to be of little present account.

and under a hard drive just got up in time to win on the post. Chickadee stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished resolutely. Count 'Em Out, cut off badly at the first turn, made up ground fast while going down the backstretch and contested every foot of the last quarter with Chickadee. Jena tired slightly when the pinch came. Pirate's Queen showed some early speed. King Barleycorn ran well for almost six furlongs. Silurian ran a dull race. He showed scant speed and was hopelessly beaten at the end.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Yelp ran in improved form, forced the pace throughout and outstayed Templeton in a hard final drive. Winner—Br. f, by Potomac—Garada (trained by W. Hayward).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Ray led throughout and gamely came away from Patronomic's strong bid at the end. The latter was given a weak finish, but ran in improved form. Pretoria was closing up well at the end. Judge Du Relle is of very moderate caliber. Knight Templar is in bad form. White Crest tired after going six furlongs well. Whisp was always outrun and ran a very bad race.
Ray, show, out. Patronomic, show, 8 to 5. Pretoria, show, evens.

Winner—Br. c, by Charade—Zingara II. (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Runnels waited on the slow pace, with plenty in reserve, to the stretch, where he moved up fast and outspurred Warranted. The latter did his best, but was at a disadvantage in having to practically make the running. Andy Williams, poorly ridden, went wide on all the turns, losing much ground, but finished strongly and might have won with a more capable rider. Circus led at a slow clip for the first mile, but the others ran past him in the final stretch sprint.
Scratched—35642 Blues, 124; (35672) Zoroaster, 106; 35743 Six Shooter, 103; 35720 Slipthrift, 100; 35768 Carbuncle, 95.

Winner—B. m, by Midlothian—Misfortune, by Wheatley (trained by D. Lamasney).
Went to post at 2:36. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Iola was the best, raced Junaetta and Tobe Paine into subjection in the first half. Booker outfinishing the other boys when it came to a drive. Junaetta showed much improvement and fought it out gamely from the head of the stretch. Tobe Paine also ran to his best form and was going strongest at the end. Miss Shanley showed her usual early speed, but tired when the real racing came. Hie Away ran badly and is a bad betting proposition now. King's Pet ran his race and had no apparent mishaps.
Scratched—35684 Chopin, 102; 35757 Gray Dally, 99; 35303 Vitoria, 99.
